ENERGIE 21 / ENERGY 21

Renewable resources, efficient consumption, sustainable development

The magazine Energie 21 is issued on a bi-monthly basis and offers information about the production, distribution, and consumption of energy from renewable and environmentally friendly alternative sources. Important topics are also legislation, the sustainable development of regions and landscapes, links between energetics, economy, and ecology. The magazine is distributed in the form of a subscription with copies numbering more than four thousand, of which about four hundred subscribers are from Slovakia. Energy 21 is mainly subscribed to by energy producers and consumers, suppliers of technologies and services, research institutes, schools, offices, and those interested in modern energy and the environment in context.
